Subject: Re: Florida
I just finished talking to Dave Montague regarding his Cuba trip. I don't know if you know this already, but he plans on going down there to look into the records of the Miami-Dade P.D. regarding the Roselli murder, among other things. I am not sure that Jack would be willing to use the Castro assassination plots, some of which can be linked to Florida (especially the whole Mongoose thing) , as his "hook" for a press conference down there, but it is an idea...Manuel
