Subject: movie reviews

I rented four movies this weekend (it rained, ya know). Here goes:First Wives Club--really enjoyed it but a definite chick flick.The Chamber--very good. Surprisingly enough, it kept my interest.That Thing You Do--adorable. But be warned that you will not be able to get that little diddy of a song out of your head for the rest of the day. The lead male character is the spitting image of a young Tom Hanks. And I know understand what all the hoopla around Liv Tyler is.Courage Under Fire--great. Lot's of surprises and beautifully acted.Any new ones on your end?
