

NR_key_name: 875706ADB2D4F4E88525649C006CD5FF
SendTo: CN=Tom Samoluk/O=ARRB @ ARRB
CopyTo: DisplayBlindCopyTo: BlindCopyTo:
From: CN=Laura Denk/O=ARRB
DisplayFromDomain:
DisplayDate: 05/19/1997
DisplayDate_Time: 3:53:00 PM
ComposedDate: 05/19/1997
ComposedDate_Time: 3:48:47 PM
Subject: Barnes Deed of Gift

Tom -- I made some changes to the Barnes deed of gift to reflect Mr. Barnes' requests. It seems to me that if we describe the Donated Materials adequately (e.g. "This is a "REPRODUCTION/COPY/DUPLICATE" and NOT the original"), we shouldn't need to have a separate paragraph explaining that we promise not to exert control over something that is not described in the description. I went ahead and put some extra language in paragraph one that might ease his mind. Take a look at it and see what you think.

Body:
recstat: Record
DeliveryPriority: N
DeliveryReport: B
ReturnReceipt: Categories: