Subject: SS Agent
I called Jackson Krill (Inspector at the SS in early 1960s and later an Assistant Director). His wife answered and said that Mr. Krill was ill and not able to come to the telephone. She said he might be better by the end of September. I explained who I am and what ARRB does. I offered to send our material, and she said that would help. She said Mr. Krill would probably be willing to talk with us when he feels better. He might not be able to come downtown since he is quite old.
