Subject: Your Opinion/What the Law Allows

Tracy:Please advise me of your thoughts on this subject:Assuming I can work out an arrangement that puts me in DC three days a week (say, Tues., Wed., Thurs.), does the law allow us/me to work a four day work week (three in DC, one up here)? How do you think this would go over with Board, if it is legally allowed? My thinking is that I will undoubtedly work 10 hours a day when in DC because I always try to make the most of those days, the travel time, particularly because it involves Dulles will be a drag making a four day arrangement more appealing, and it will help on the personal/family front here.Please give me your personal opinion and the legal one, if you know.Thanks.Tom
