Subject: Secret Service Appointment Records
CALL REPORTDocument's Author: Jeremy Gunn/ARRB Date Created: 09/24/97 The Players Description of the Call Date: 09/24/97Subject: Secret Service Appointment RecordsSummary of the Call:Steve called to say that he received a report back from Sharon Fawcett at Presidential Libraries who spoke with Tina Houston (LBJL) and Will Johnson (JFKL) about potentially missing appointment records. Ms. Fawcett now believes that:1. USSS began to use FORM WH -21 in February, 1965, which accounts for why the JFKL does not have such forms.2. Apparently, prior to February 65, the USSS used the "United States Secret Service Appointment Records, White House Police" (including attachments) to fulfill the same purpose as the WH-21. 3. According to the JFKL, the apparent reduction of the volume of the appointment slips documentation at the JFKL (from 35' to 12') was due to consolidation of the materials and reboxing, and not to a change in the number of actual records.
