Subject: Re: Research Projects

SINCE I am going to be in Dallas for the Lancer conference and dealings with Aynesworth, I am thinking that I should seek out Jeff West of the Library to see if he is interested in meeting. In addition, if you think it is worth it, I could advise our staffers that I am going to be in Dallas and perhaps interview some of the people that Ron is interested, if they are, in fact, in the Dallas area. Then again, they may be only worth phone interviews. Please advise me of your thoughts.

On Gemberling & other FBI retirees -- if you need his address or phone number -- you may want to just call Carol at 324-0671 and get the addresses & phone numbers from her. She has the retired agents phone book in her top desk drawer. Her information tends to be more accurate (and maybe easier to obtain) than information from FINCEN. Also -- on a more substantive note about interviewing Gemberling -- if you are going to do a short phone interview of Gemberling, you might want to consider calling the other Dallas/FW former agents that Hosty mentioned in his interview as equally important sources of information, including John Fain (who is old, but alive, and handled the Oswald case before Hosty), Wally Heitman (who was the only Spanish speaking security agent in Dallas and, thus, handled all of the Cuban cases -- Hosty thought he would be the best source of information for us), SA Bookhout (who was one of three agents who Hosty says would have heard a tape of Oswald in Mexico City if anyone at the FBI ever heard such a tape), Bardwell Odum (may be dead, but Hosty says might remember Shanklin's instructions to Hosty to destroy records), and Manning Clements (who was Gemberling's counterpart, as he headed the Ruby section of the post-assassination investigation in Dallas).

I would like to propose some research projects requiring Sydney to locate certain former government officials that I think may be helpful in verifying that we are locating all the relevant files for some of the major agencies. I would envision a short telephone interview with these individuals if they are indeed alive and locatable. If agreeable to the you and/or the Research Committee, can we forward this to Sydney to authorize him to locate these individuals. They are:

1. Robert L. Keuch -- He was the Department of Justice liaison to the HSCA. In this position, he represented all of the DOJ components, including FBI and INS. In his correspondence to the HSCA he had referred to a "department" file on Oswald that, from the context, seemed to connote Department of Justice, but DOJ has stated that he must have been referring to an FBI file on Oswald. I would like to clarify this point and see what he remembers generally regarding DOJ files made available to the Record
