Henry: A couple of matters I wanted to mention: 1. Did you see in the Sunday NY Times that your former student Mr. Weiner did a whole piece in the editorial section on our Cuba document release from earlier in the week? Unfortunately, he left out the four magic words for us in the column - - "Assassination Records Review Board," as in "the documents were released this week by the Assassination Records Review Board." Maybe you can tweak him on this point next time you talk to him, (without getting him mad at us, after all he did write a good article for us earlier in the week on the Cuba documents - - with the four magic words, and we want him to write in the future). 2. My nephew, Andrew Dennington, who is at Columbia, is very excited because he has Alan Brinkley next semester. He still hopes to have the pleasure of meeting you sometime in the near future. 3. Did you finish your reviews of the May and Beschloss books? Hope all is well with you and
