Subject: Re: CBS Assassination films

This is what Eric had found at the Library of Congress. Your message reminded me that I had asked him to check. Of course, this leaves much that is not there, including the outtakes from all of the specials, the original coverage, and the other specials.

Never mind the phone call I made today. Now that it appears your email is okay again, let me tell you about my CBS film search. I could not find a comprehensive film coverage of the four days. The LoC has film from NBC for those days but I could not find a similar collection for CBS. However, the LoC does have the CBS 1975 inquiry and the 1967 one on the Warren Report. If one wants to see them one must make an appointment as the film is stored in Landover.

Eric: These are old e-mails below, but I was wondering if you sometime you could check to see if the CBS coverage of the assassination is, in fact, at the Library of Congress in the motion picture branch.
Thanks. Tom

I (we) didn't know this but we do know. Thanks! I'll speak with Jeremy about this.

Apparently, CBS film coverage of the assassination is included in the Library of Congress motion picture branch.
