Body: FYI. 1. I will visit Ford on 20th and return on the 21st. I would like to have all January Board meeting issues resolved by January 16. I will do a couple of days of beachcombing on my own nickel on Sunday and on MLK day.2. I have been invited to participate on a panel at Emory Law School on January 29. I will leave on the 28th and speak to Lamar Waldron in the evening. I will be back on Friday, Jan. 30.3. I currently am scheduled to give a talk at Stanford on Feb. 27, though the date might change to the 20th. Please suggest ideas for Board-related work I might also do. (E.g., Lansdale papers at the Hoover institution.)4. I have accepted an invitation from the ABA to be on a panel in the UN in New York in honor of the 50th anniversary of the UN Declaration on Human Rights on March 13. The inaugural dinner is on the evening of March 12, so I will leave in the afternoon. Anna asked that I arrange to speak with Schlesinger. I am going to try to arrange for a meeting with him on the afternoon of the 12th. Michelle is assisting in the preparations.5. I have a semi-, but unconfirmed offer to present a paper for a Columbia University conference in Krakow, Poland, on March 16. I will keep you advised.6. I will likely be out of the office for child care reasons during the last two weeks of March. I am hoping to go to France with Caroline, but that is only in the early planning stages.
