Subject: call from Nan Waffen -- freelance producer

Tom:Nan Waffen called again (last call was 12-15-97 -- in media contacts database) to discuss the possibility of doing a documentary for A&E about Clay Shaw. She says now that she is interested in focusing more on the Review Board.She asked last month about the status of Stephen Tyler's donation, and I have forgotten where we left off on that.See call report below.CALL REPORTDocument's Author: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB Date Created: 01/16/98 The Players Description of the Call Date: 01/16/98Subject: Shaw/Review Board documentarySummary of the Call:10:30 -- Nan Waffen called to request another packet of the Clay Shaw journal excerpts, press release, and ARRB/JFK Collection brochures.She informed me that she made an initial pitch to A&E about a documentary on Clay Shaw. She said that A&E didn't "bite", and she attributes this to the timing. She said the Hersh book was in the news a lot at that time, and she thinks that may have tainted her proposal. She and her associate, David (did not get last name), are planning to propose it again, however, their focus is shifting more toward the Review Board itself now.She is interested in possibly doing a documentary about the Board, and delve into certain areas like the Shaw papers. This is all preliminary, and I reminded her of our limited remaining time. She said she will keep in touch.
