Mitchell Kaye from Cobb County,>GA.>>The Bill of No Rights>>We, the sensible people of the United States, in an attempt to help>everyone get along, restore some semblance of justice, avoid any more>riots, keep>our nation safe, promote positive behavior and secure the blessings of>debt-free liberty to ourselves and our great-great-great grandchildren,>hereby try>one more time to ordain and establish some common sense guidelines for>the>terminally whiny, guilt-ridden, delusional and other liberal, bed>wetters.>>We hold these truths to be self-evident: that a whole lot of people were>confused by the Bill of Rights and are so dim that they require a Bill>of No Rights.>>ARTICLE I:>You do not have the right to a new car, big screen TV or any other form>of wealth. More power to you if you can legally acquire them, but no one>is>guaranteeing anything.>>ARTICLE II:>You do not have the right to never be offended. This country is based on>freedom, and that means freedom for everyone - not just you! You may>leave the room, turn the channel, express a different opinion, etc., but>the>world is full of idiots, and probably always will be.>>ARTICLE III:>You do not have the right to be free from harm. If you stick a>screwdriver in your eye, learn to be more careful, do not expect the>tool>manufacturer to make you and all your relatives independently wealthy.>>ARTICLE IV:>You do not have the right to free food and housing. Americans are the>most>charitable people to be found, and will gladly help anyone in need, but>we>are quickly growing weary of subsidizing generation after generation of>professional couch potatoes who achieve nothing more than the creation>of>another generation of professional couch potatoes.>>ARTICLE V:>You do not have the right to free health care. That would be nice, but>from the looks of public housing, we're just not interested in health>care.>>ARTICLE VI:>You do not have the right to physically harm other people. If you>kidnap, rape, intentionally maim or kill someone, don't be surprised if>the rest>of us want to see you fry in the electric
