Subject: Re: Assassination Records Review Board press release--FBI appeal

Eileen - in the Seventies, when the FBI released thousands of pages of documents, these were made available to libraries around the country on microfilm. Has any thought been given to making the newly released Kennedy records available in such a format? It's hard for those of us who live thousands of miles away to get to DC, and costly to ask for reprints. It's so much better to be able to access the record at home, for no cost. Just a thought.
