Subject: CIA Memoirs
Dear. Ms. Sullivan: In case the Board isn't already aware, due to the memoirs of WinScott, I wanted to mention that the CIA maintains an historical division which houses the memoirs of CIA personnel. It might be worth looking into the memoirs, if they wrote any, of the following personnel: E. Howard Hunt, Tracy Barnes, David Atlee Phillips, James Angleton, Richard Helms, Ted Shackley, David Morales, "John Scelso," Ann Goodpasture, William Harvey, Anne Egerter, J. Walton Moore, James McCord, and Andy Anderson, as well as other CIA names encountered in documents in the JFK Records collection. These should be easier to find than some of what the Board has been pursuing. Also, what about the Parkland medical records located at the affiliated medical school in Dallas? I understand Dr. Carrico controls them. Keep up the good work! Martin Shackelford
