Subject: Rene Roberts part 2
I requested searches in the additional cities and Rene explained the new policy under which she is working:If she ran a search of each city, every time there is a "hit" she would have to charge us $10. With this story that could potentially cost us hundreds and hundreds of dollars.She is doing the networks and Boston stations as a favor, but can't get away with anything more. She also said their computers were working slowly today, but she will fax over her findings as soon as the search is complete.
