Subject: Re: Lt. Day and the Palm Print
Ms. Sullivan,>>> Please send/forward any correspondence to me, and I will either respond or forward it to the appropriate staff member. <<<OK.I was in contact with Mr. Samoluk on the possibility of the Board interviewingformer Dallas police Lt. J. C. Day regarding the palm print, which is anassassination record, and also concerning his testimony about his handling ofthe print.At last report, Lt. Day was still alive. I understand that he lives in Dallas.The existing record with regard to the palm print is incomplete, as I discuss inthe article I sent, and Mr. Day is one of the people still alive, and perhapsstill alive, who is in a position to shed light on it. If nothing else, itwould be important to depose Mr. Day and to ask him the questions he should havebeen asked long ago.Thanks for your time.Mike Griffith
