Subject: Documents withdrawn from FCI appeal by FBI

The FBI has processed these documents for release. They are now sitting in our SCIF, on the shelf next to Cathy's inbox (under the phone), together with the major briefings on these documents. I talked with Thom late this (Friday) afternoon, and our plan for Monday is as follows: (1) Kevin, please doublecheck that the FBI has correctly put together the packages to go out to College Park. I looked through these very quickly, and all seemed to be in order, but please verify their accuracy and completeness. (2) Kevin, also please construct copies of the FCI (not Lane) documents as they are now being made available to the public by photocopying the newly declassified pages, making copies of the pages that have long been open (from the attachments to the appeal briefs), and putting them together as necessary to make "whole" documents. (It is not necessary to do this for each duplicate location, just once for each of the ten "trunk" FCI documents.) (3) Give the copies of the ten "whole" documents to Thom, to pass on to the members of the media who have asked for them. (4) Finally, Kevin (or any other appropriate person) will take the packages prepared by the FBI to Steve Tilley. I guess you'd better call Monday morning to tell them this is coming, and let them know as a point of courtesy that our office is also making copies available to people who have asked for them. Thanks for your help on this.
