To Whom It May Concern from ciajfk.com MEMORIALI thought those interested in the rock world should realize that RandyCalifornia is presumed dead of the group SPIRIT died in Hawaii while savinghis son who was drowning in the surf. For those not aware he was a greatguitar player and I am proud to say that I met him many times in SantaMonica where he stored his equipment. I witnessed his group with theoldest drummer in Rock n Roll Ed Cassidy (California's stepfather) inTopanga during the 1970s and saw him in 1995 at Glendale. He played withJimmy Hendrix and was inspired by him and he impressed me in 1995 more thanKruger of the DOORS and Big Brother. THIS MAN DIED AS ANY HERO WOULD HAVE,SAVING THE LIFE OF HIS SON FROM THE WILD SURF. YET VERY LITTLE WAS SAIDABOUT HIM OR HIS CAREER. Speaking of Big Brother:Does anyone know if Jack Valenti was related to the mobster Jack Valenti orCeasar Valenti. They were mobsters during the 1930s. Jack Valenti wasslain in the 1930s and there is an article in the New York Times.In Jack Valenti's Current Biography 1968 he failed to mentioned who hisparents by name, LBJ's righthand man's bio says: "The grandson of Sicilianimmigrants and the son of a clerk in the county tax office in Houston,Texas, Jack Joseph Valenti was born in Houston on Sept. 5, 1921.It would be interesting if his roots turned out to be part of the mafia forthose JFK researchers.SincerelyBruce Campbell Adamsonru4?@ciajfk.com --email
