Subject: The government would go bankrupt if one could post court cases, Like this Plaintiff has done: Bruce Campbell Adamson vs. CIA, c-95-20549 (RMW) ACTUAL TEXT FROM COURT MOTION below. BRUCE CAMPBELL ADAMSON P.O. BOX 1103 Santa Cruz, CA, 95061-1103 #(new address) Email address: bca@ciajfk.com #Telephone - 408-465-9272) #Plaintiff Informa
PauperisBruce Campbell Adamson | Complaint Number | | NO. C-95-20549 RMW Vs. | AFFIDAVIT AND
MOTION | TO PRODUCE DOCUMENTS | FROM THE GEORGE BUSH John Deutch, | PRESIDENTIAL
LIBRARYCentral Intelligence Director, | | DATE: APRIL 11TH _____ | TIME: 9:00 AM #PLAINTIFF, BRUCE CAMPBELL ADAMSON,# makes the following affidavit under the penalty of perjury in support of producing documents from the Bush Presidential Library. Plaintiff has served Dr. Don W. Wilson, executive Director of the Presidential Library on two occasions without a response by telephone or mail. Mr.
Dave Alsobrooks made an a good point that the Bush Presidential Library archives address is different from executive Don Wilson's. Their address is as follows: The George Bush Presidential Library Archives, Texas A & M University, Attn. Dave Alsobrooks, 701 University East, College Station, Texas, 77840-1145. The first subpoena lacked a date on the Subpoena so the Plaintiff reissued an additional subpoena. #See Subpoena Exhibit # #1. # Plaintiff also submits an email address for Defendants and the Presidential Library to communicate to Plaintiff at bca@ciajfk.com Plaintiff would like all of the documents pertaining to: 1). George Bush's Central Intelligence Records, 1948- 1996; 2). Zapata Oil Inc. Records. 3). Zapata Off-Shore Oil Records, Inc. 4). Permargo Oil, Inc. (misspelled on Subpoena) 5). Cima Oil, Inc. 6). A master index of all correspondence within the Bush Library when completed. Plaintiff spoke to the Bush Presidential Library Archives on Feb.
4,1997 and Mr. Dave Alsobrooks, who had said he did not receive either subpoena. At this time Plaintiff granted Mr. Alsobrooks an additional 30 days from this date to respond to the previously served subpoena, which was either lost, destroyed or misplaced. If The Bush Presidential Library should satisfy Plaintiff's request then Plaintiff will notify the Defendants and your honor before April 11, 1997. At this time plaintiff would like to inform your honor of the progress of Plaintiff's nine volumes on the JFK assassination. #See Exhibit 2. # At the three JFK assassination conferences in Washington D.C. and Dallas which were put on by The Coalition of Political Assassination and Lancer Production and Publishers, Plaintiff sold 250 books through a dealer. Note: Plaintiff did not profit from this but was told that the nine volumes were well received. Plaintiff attaches the covers of these nine volumes for your honor and the Defendant's observation. In October Plaintiff's volumes were reviewed by Colonel Andrew Amerson who works for the State of California as an attorney and retired in July of 1996 from the Judge Advocate General's as an attorney. Also by author and Colonel Fletcher Prouty of (Air Force), author Anthony Summers.# See exhibit 3. On November 5th(election day), 8th, 21st and 22nd
