Subject: Re: Timeline Chart

from ciajfk.com Dear Jerry: The flu is history. Today I ran carrying 34 pounds of weight for a half an hour and another 40 minutes without them. I felt great today, we had a picture perfect day. I trust you, and will send it out in the next couple of days. The Timeline has all of the factual information from all eight volumes, but is not in a story format. It is 265 pages and has an index. You'll be happy. Five years of research at a cost of $120,000, I have the receipts to prove it, is a steal for the Timeline. I am only trying to educate people and get the message across. One thing about being your own publisher is that no one can manipulate the truth and you can call the shots and give breaks on purchasing. I discounted the books to the Talk America Radio Networks. I sent a free copy to James Earl Ray and pointed him to Percy Foreman's ties to Edward J. Hudson. Since he is getting so much attention, he will probably be bombarded with letters. Hope he gets the book and I have received several letters from him in the past. Also sent copy of Timeline to John Judge, with vol. I. of the deMohrenschildt Story. Lancer's has a copy of the older version of the Timeline and they have not responded yet. Hope that they become interested before their next conference so that it is available. Jerry since you have been a JFK researcher for so many years anything you want to say on vol. II or the Timeline can be passed on to others on the internet. I have been dabbling with all of the Internet news groups and the Fort Worth Star Forum. For the past month I have had to organize a 120,000 in cash receipts by year after I had already separated them by subject costs on my four books. So I am a bit batty from the stress. Has anyone ever handled $120,000 in receipts? The end is near and have a CPA who is going to handle my income tax report, so that I don't violate any laws and don't lose my government benefits. Let me know what you think of the Timeline and vol. II. Sincerely, Bruce C. Adamson ru4?@ciajfk.com
