ciajfk.comDear Martha:Sounds like it will be O.K.I won a case against the U.S. Postal Service, without a lawyer, and themonthly benefits permit me for the pass five years to do the research.What has been really annoying is that I have had to go through and changethe story and volumes on countless occasions, because of discovering newinformation.Was I dreaming, this morning, or did I see Philip C. Johnson the architecton "Today" the morning show today about having a contest for the Oklahomabombing memorial? Mr. Johnson, listed in de Mohrenschildt's phonebookabove Lyndon Johnson's entry was the designer of the JFK memorial inDallas. When I called his glass house in Connecticut three years ago anelderly gentleman answered the phone pretending to be Johnson's son.Strange for Johnson has never been married and does not have a son. Istill have the phone bill.I think I am going to go ahead and release vol. VII even though it is halfdone on the tech. editing. I feel bad keeping people waiting so long sincethey have already paid.Hope all is wellBruce
