Subject: Information

Hi Eileen,I am writing on behalf of Steven Lamb, a fellow researcher from my home town of Nottingham, England. Although he is not currently on the internet, and thus unable to receive emails, he would like to be on your mailing list and receive such information as the ARRB regularly puts out.His address is:Mr Steven LambCatherine's Bakery69 Main Street Burton JoyceNottingham EnglandNG14 5EDAlso Steven mentioned an item that may be of interest to the board: Several years (1987?) ago the British TV station, Channel 4, ran a programme entitled "THE TRIAL OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD". Many original witnesses were invited to take part. One such witness was Nelson Delgado, LHO's Marine buddy. In the programme, Delgado revealed that he was still in fear of a reprisals for statements that he had earlier made to the Warren Commission. He stated that he had been shot on two occasions. Under questioning, from Mr. Bugliosi (prosecutor), Delgado claimed that he believed that the FBI was behind the attacks on him. Bugliosi responded with the question "don't you think if the FBI wanted to kill you - you would be dead by now?" Delgado replied saying that he had left a sealed letter with the TV company as insurance against any reprisals.If this letter and its contents are not known to the board, it may be a good idea to request a copy from Channel 4 TV in Britain. Delgado is now dead, and presumably any contracts between him and the TV station no longer exist.Steven has conducted further research in this area and although he is now aware of this document from other sources, he has been unable to obtain a copy from any source. Channel Four simply did not reply to his enquiry. The existence of this document has been confirmed by Delgado's widow.All the bestChris Mills
