Subject: Lardner Cover Note

E- Attached is the Lardner cover note. Please put in final form and show to David. Please call over to Lardner and tell him when the subpoenas are ready to go. If he answers his phone, he will probably offer again to send a courier. If you get his voice mail, please tell him that we'll call the courier and just send it over, so we can get rid of them. David -As I drafted the cover note and started to put in some of the things we talked about (more detail on what subpoenas we were not including, mentioning that the subpoenas alone do not give a complete picture of our work, elaborating on the fact that some subpoenas were requested by the witness, etc.), I thought I was just giving him more fodder for some difficult questions. In the end, I kept it simple and figure he'll have to talk to me if this actually leads to a story.T
