Kennedy. CIA Records The Review Board voted to release 153 CIA records in part. These documents are part of the so-called "Sequestered Collection." The records relate primarily to Cuban exiles and anti-Castro/anti-communist groups, including subjects such as Alpha 66, and Cuban activities in Mexico City. Included in this group of records are 35 HSCA documents with CIA equities. These documents consist of HSCA staff notes. In addition, 71 documents are available in full by consent release. FBI Records The Board also voted to release 121 FBI records, 43 in full and 78 in part. These documents relate in part to the JFK assassination investigation, the related coordination between the FBI and the CIA, and the Ku Klux Klan reaction to the assassination. HSCA Records The testimony of James Angleton to the HSCA is now available in part at the National Archives. The testimony contains 19 redactions, consisting primarily of names and locations. In addition to the 35 HSCA documents mentioned above, 102 HSCA documents are available in full by consent
