Subject: Rankin Announcement For Day Book
Let's fax one of the advisories over to Lardner, too. (Morley is on vacation.)To: Eileen Sullivan/ARRBcc: From: Tom Samoluk/ARRB Date: 07/01/97 08:04:13 AMSubject: Rankin Announcement For Day BookE- To give some notice (to address Juliana's concern), I have attached a short notice for the wire services day book. Please give me a call after you have seen it. I think it should be faxed to the AP, Reuters and UPI day book fax numbers (I think we have specific fax numbers for all of their day books). That should get it on the wire today that we are going to have something tomorrow. It is a little awkward to word given the situation with the papers already being available, but at least we should be able to give some notice, without, hopefully someone jumping the gun today and actually going out to the Archives.I suggest that it be faxed at around 2:00 p.m. today. You should also fax it to the desks at ABC, NBC, CBS, CNN, as well as Bob Clark, Jeff Morley, and Max Holland. Then, we would not have to make any calls. I think it was one of the networks that had complained to the Archives about a lack of notice on some release in the past (it did not involve us). If we put this out today, I think we are covered on the notice issue. Tomorrow the actual news release could go to everyone.Please give me a call.Thanks.Tom
