E-Here is the draft news release for the NSA documents. It is my understanding from David of what we can do (obviously limited). Please print a copy of the draft for David, stamp it draft, put a quick note with it, asking if it is okay with him. When it gets closer to the time that we think the documents will be ready, we'll need to check back with David to see what he thinks. Also, we'll need to give Susan Cooper a heads up soon to see what she wants to do from their end (i.e., Archives media advisory?).Thanks.TNE W S R E L E A S E FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE EILEEN SULLIVAN JULY 2, 1997 (202) 724-0088, EXT. 253 JFK ASSASSINATION RECORDS REVIEW BOARD RELEASESNATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY RECORDSThe Assassination Records Review Board, an independent federal agency overseeing the identification, review, and release of records related to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, announced today that it is releasing 85 documents from the National Security Agency (NSA).The original records have been transferred to the National Archives and Records Administration for inclusion in the JFK Collection, which is housed at the National Archives facility in College Park, Maryland.The Assassination Records Review Board was established by the JFK Act, which was signed into law by President George Bush. The five members of the Board were appointed by President Clinton, confirmed by the U.S. Senate, and sworn in on April11, 1994. The law gives the Review Board the mandate and the authority to identify, secure, and make available all records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. It is the responsibility of the Board to determine which records are to be made public immediately and which ones will have postponed release dates.-30-
