Subject: Feinsilber Call
E-He called and said that he decided not to do a story. It was his view, after talking to Posner, looking at Posner's book and some other background information, that there was no chance that Oswald was taped while talking with visitors (although he was curious as to how the FBI had a verbatim transcript of Ruby's conversation with a visitor a day later). I think he was sincere when he said that he did not want to write a weak story. Mike is still very much interested in us and did not feel like he had wasted any time in researching a possible story. We tried.
