Subject: I move the meeting be reconvened...
...since I'm going to be in town next Tues. and Wed. (12th and 13th). Would you have any interest in/availability for a happy hour for Tuesday? I'm devoting lunch that day to viewing wedding and baby pictures and hearing about Korea (Laura, Kevin and Bob, respectively), but I'll probably need a beer or two afterwards in the company of less attached and more irresponsible folks like yourself, Doug or whomever can be persuaded to come along! What do you think??P.S. Did I hear correctly that this e-mail will reach you in a posh office all your own, oh-promoted-one?? I want to hear the details!
