Subject: Possible New Round of Calls From Lloyd Grove, Washington Post
Please be advised that Lloyd Grove of the Washington Post called David at home today and he has now left a message for me at the Review Board. I have not spoken with him yet. According to David, Grove says that Cusack has shared letters with him that were written from Hersh to Cusack at some point prior to the Board meeting with Hersh. Grove says that the letters appear to indicate that Hersh was using the Board in dealing with Cusack. Additionally, Grove detects that Hersh was suggesting stonewalling the Board. Hersh has denied this suggestion to Grove. Please direct calls from Grove to me at the Board. David suggested that our response be that Hersh was cooperative, but, of course, we would not know what he was saying to other people. I will give you an update as I learn more information. Thanks.
