Subject: Information
<Dear Eileen I have sent emails to you in the past and hope you remember me. My name is John Rudd and I am Secretary of the British group called DALLAS '63. We produce a quarterly journal and would like to include any items that you and the ARRB permit us to reproduce for our members. We are non profit. If you would like back copies and future copies of our journal at no cost to you, please let me know. Thank you for your time> Bye for now> John> John Rudd> Secretary DALLAS '63> 2 Wingrave Way> Liverpool> L11 2UB> England> Tel: 044 151 256 8958> N E W S R E L E A S E>> FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE> SEPTEMBER 18, 1997>> CONTACT: EILEEN SULLIVAN> (202) 724-0088, EXT. 253>> ASSASSINATION RECORDS REVIEW BOARD RELEASES CLAY SHAW PAPERS;> ACQUITTED> IN> 69 FOR ALLEGED JFK MURDER PLOT>> The Assassination Records Review Board, the independent federal agency>> overseeing the identification and release of records related to the> assassination of President John F. Kennedy, announced today that it> has> released the original personal papers of the late Clay Shaw, the New> Orleans businessman charged with conspiracy to murder President> Kennedy.> Shaw was acquitted after a jury trial in 1969.>> Shaw, who died in 1974, was charged as part of the Kennedy> assassination> investigation conducted by the late New Orleans District Attorney Jim> Garrison. The papers were kept by one of Shaws friends until earlier> this> year when he donated the materials to the Review Board. The> collection> includes Shaws diary that chronicled his life after being arrested for> conspiring to kill the President, records from his criminal case,> correspondence, business records, his passports, personal records and> photographs.>> The New Orleans chapter of the Kennedy assassination story and the> whole> Garrison investigation is still debated and surrounded by controversy,>> said> Dr. Kermit Hall, a member of the Review Board. The acquisition of the>> Clay> Shaw papers means that historians and the public will now have the> benefit> of the personal perspective of the only man ever tried in connection> with> the assassination of President Kennedy.>> The Shaw papers have been transferred to the National Archives and> Records> Administration for inclusion in the JFK Collection, which is housed at>> the> National Archives facility in College Park, Maryland.>> Copies of excerpts from Shaws diary are available from the> Assassination> Records Review Board, 600 E Street, NW, Second Floor, Washington, DC> 20530;> telephone number: (202) 724-0088.>> The Assassination Records Review Board was established by the JFK Act,>> which was signed into law by President George Bush. The five members> of> the Board were appointed by President Clinton, confirmed by the U.S.> Senate, and sworn in on April> 11, 1994. The law gives the Review Board the mandate and the> authority> to> identify, secure, and make available all records related to the> assassination of President Kennedy. It is the responsibility of the> Board> to determine which records are to be made public
