Kennedy, announced today that it hasacquired original handwritten notes on the interrogation of Lee HarveyOswald taken by the late Dallas Police Captain who was in charge ofquestioning the alleged presidential assassin. This is the second timethat the Board has obtained previously unavailable Oswald interrogationnotes made by a law enforcement official.Dallas Police Captain J. W. ?Will? Fritz, who headed the homicide androbbery bureau, was the primary interrogator of Oswald while he was inpolice custody from the afternoon of November 22 until the morning ofNovember 24,1963 when Oswald was killed by Jack Ruby in the basement of theDallas police station. The Board recently acquired the notes along withother papers and photographs found after Captain Fritz?s death in 1984. Thematerials had been in the possession of the donor, who wishes to remainanonymous, until they were voluntarily turned over to the Board last month.?Captain Fritz?s original notes on the Oswald interrogations add depth tothe primary record of what went on during the hours
