Subject: Summary of LBJ Library and State Dept. Documents Voted on by Board
The Board voted to release in part nine documents from the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library. This set of documents included 1963 NSC Standing Group Meetings on Cuba; memos from State Department and CIA discussing the situation in Southeast Asia, policy toward Cuba and general Western Hemisphere relations just after the death of President Kennedy; and a November 1963 OSD report to the Joint Chiefs dealing with Military Force Structure. The Board also voted to release in part six State Department records. These included CIA - originated cables discussing the investigation of Lee Harvey Oswald's Intourist guide in Moscow; CIA memos assessing Secret Service protection for President Kennedy's 1962 visit to Brazil and security concerns for Mrs. Kennedy and her children during a 1966 visit to Madrid; and a DOS memo, based on FBI reporting, on the security concerns of President Kennedy's 1961 trip to South America.
