Subject: conversation with Debra Conway about Federal Register
After exchanging voicemail messages, I finally spoke with her about JFK Lancer's interest in the Federal Register notices. She said that JFK Lancer is interested in these notices, that they do try to follow them, and that researchers look to her organization to sort through this all for them. She said that receiving the notices electronically is of interest to her and would be helpful. I told her that I would keep her posted if there were any changes in the current dissemination system.
