Subject: Re: thank you
What seems to have fired this issue was Bob Clark's presumption that we had discovered incriminating information in the files and that we were demanding to get it. How in the world did he get that idea? I really wonder about that. In order to get the reporter off the story for today, I had to confirm off the record that Clark's presumption was not true. I also have to spend some time with this reporter who wants to do a followup story on our search for records. J.R.T. _____ Reply Separator
