

NR_key_name: 7A0738A4EBEE5151862565CB007BED00

SendTo: Eileen_Sullivan @ jfk-arrb.gov

CopyTo:

DisplayBlindCopyTo:

BlindCopyTo: CN=Eileen Sullivan/O=ARRB

From: kfitz@prodigy.net

DisplayFromDomain:

DisplayDate: 03/18/1998

DisplayDate_Time: 5:05:30 PM

ComposedDate:

ComposedDate_Time:

Subject: Re: Requesting your assistance

Dear Ms. Sullivan, Thank you so very much for your prompt reply and your attention to this matter. Best wishes, Kathlee Fitzgerald-----> From: Eileen Sullivan <Eileen_Sullivan@jfk-arrb.gov>> To: kfitz@prodigy.net> Subject: Re: Requesting your assistance> Date: Wednesday, March 18, 1998 10:23 AM>>>>> Dear Ms. Fitzgerald:>> Mr. Robert White agreed on Monday to withdraw certain items from the> auction and turn them over to the National Archives. According to the> Washington Post, these items include:>> an Oval Office writing table> a telegram from Lyndon Johnson to Kennedy> memos from Kennedy to his secretaries of state and defense (re:> Vietnam/Cold War policy)> a briefing book for Kennedy's 1961 summit with Nikita Khrushchev> 20 or so documents, 3 of which contain national security information.>> I hope this is helpful to you.>> Eileen Sullivan>> To: Eileen_Sullivan @ jfk-arrb.gov> cc: (bcc: Eileen Sullivan/ARRB)> From: kfitz @ prodigy.net @ INTERNET @ INTERLIANT> Date: 03/17/98 06:54:49 PM> Subject: Requesting your assistance>>>>> Dear Ms. Sullivan,> Would you please inform me of the outcome of the National Archives meeting> last Friday with Mr. White regarding items he has placed for auction at> Gurnsey's in New York?> Also I would like to encourage the Board's active participation in> reviewing the all the items in the upcoming auction for their historical> significance.> Thank you for your consideration of this matter.> Best wishes,> Kathlee Fitzgerald>>>

Body:

recstat:

DeliveryPriority:

DeliveryReport:

ReturnReceipt:

Categories: