Subject:	Pace of Board votes
Body:	Could you put your heads together to come up with a chart or table that shows the pace of Board review of records. (I would like to be able to answer a question if necessary.) It might look something like the following:Jan. 1995 3June 1996 150 Board votes; 40 consent releasesJan. 97 567 Board votes; 800 consent releases.I would like a chart that is meaningful and revealing, but not a pain in the neck for the creators of the chart. Can this be done?
