Subject: RE: POSNER "REVISITED": The Deconstruction of Vincent Bugliosi

Jim and all, Thanks for your post Jim. I think Roger Peterson's idea of expert factsheets is an excellent one and we should get busy and write them. I am presently working on a TOP TEN researcher's list to have handy when the press calls. I have other plans for this information, such as sending this list to media outlets for their information ahead of time. Now, don't everybody start sending their resume's to the media!! :) This must be done in an orderly fashion or they'll just be tossed into the trash. Please see Roger's example of a fact sheet, you can send them to either him or me to compile if you'd like. I am setting up a web site for them that can be linked to from anyone else's sight. If you already have information about yourself on the net, please send the address and we'll link to it. You all could also contact your local press and tell them you'd be happy to play devil's advocate if they plan any coverage of the Bugliosi book or on the 35th Anniversary at all. You never know, they may contact you. Mary's CDRom is just days away from completion and we can send copies to certain reporters to establish a consistent foundation of facts. Jim, being prepared is the key. We all have good knowledge of the important facts in the case. Let's promise not to be distracted by the opposition's opinions or disheartened by this book. Word has it that the media doesn't particularly like Bugliosi (big ego tripper). I remember Fred Haines from the old JFK Share newsgroup. He knew his stuff and was always impressive with his posts. David Lifton told me he was working with Bugliosi but at the time it was confidential. Anyway, look at the money spent of Norman Mailer's book--then nothing happened. The public will not be so easily fooled.
