Eileen,I got to thinking after our last conversation . . . why don't you just assume I'll be interested in every release & document that you all will be providing until the day the doors close. I say this because my mail is being forwarded while I'm at Brown University, but it is delayed in the process. And I worry about not receiving things to. So to be on the safe side, why don't we just agree that you'll send me everything (like Jeremy's interviews to be sure) c/o Priscilla, which is 12 Hilliard Street, Cambridge, MA, 02138. A first draft of my D Mag story is due August 1st, and I have you to thank for getting me access to the primary sources. I visited with Bill Joyce for almost two hours in Princeton on my way up here. See you in September no doubt. . . Max
