Subject: RE: Status check

Thank you so much for your nice and thorough reply. Since I composed those letters to Dr. Nelson on my PC, I will re-print them and send them out to you right away, so that they can be given some consideration. Thanks, Nancy Wertz-----From: Eileen SullivanSent: Thursday, July 23, 1998 8:14 AMTo: Nancy WertzSubject: Re: Status checkDear Ms. Wertz:Thank you for your patience while I looked into this matter. I did receive your letter, dated July 3, 1998, in which you inquired about previous letters to Dr. Nelson. I went through all of letters we have received from you, and none of those letters were there. It is indeed puzzling, as all correspondence from the public comes to me first. I do not recall seeing any of these letters, and they are not in your "correspondence file." Even if I shared them with Dr. Nelson, I would have kept the original in your correspondence file, as is procedure. We work very hard to be as responsive as possible to all requests, suggestions, and comments. I find it hard to believe that NONE of these letters made to our office, but they apparently did not. As I mentioned above, I did receive your letter to me, and we also received your June 24, 1998, letter to Chairman Tunheim that contains recommendations to the Review Board for the final report. I forwarded your thoughtful letter to the Review Board members, and the letters received in response to the Board's "call for letters" have been referred to and discussed as the Board prepares to submit its final report. Again, I would like to thank you for your patience and your courtesy. The next two months will be very busy for us here, and I thank you for your understanding. Since you are on the mailing list, you will be notified when the final report is available. Sincerely, Eileen A. I never received any followup from Dr. Nelson from any of the letters, which was disappointing because I felt I was providing important information. I am curious as to whether you have received this correspondence. I know you must be quite busy trying to wrap things up. I appreciate any assistance you can provide. Nancy Wertzbndt@msn.com
