Subject: presentation of report to Burton/Congress
I have now spoken with both Dan Moll and Jeff Schaffner. Jeff will be in touch with Burton's personal office to check on his schedule. Depending on the size of the crowd (Board members, staff members, committee members, committee staff members) the presentation will take place in either Burton's office or a small committee room. Dan originally suggested Burton's office as the venue, but I told him that the Board would like to invite not only oversight committee members, but also other members of Congress that played a role in drafting the legislation. Dan suggested that I call around to some offices (like Stokes, Specter) and tell their staff members that we are arranging a presentation, can they come, etc. to get a feel for the size assembling. After speaking with Jeff we both agreed that it would be better to have a committee room, however he said I should still call around to get a feel for attendance.
