Subject: ARRB Final Report

Eileen:Re the ARRB report:The GPO tells me that for ordering purposes, I need the ISBN number of thereport. When you know that (or if you know that), could you please supplythat information? Thanks much.If there are any copies obtainable at ARRB, please send me one (addresssupplied below).If there is any procedure in force for ordering them at GPO or at Archives,please let me know. (Martha Murphy said she heard they were consideringmaking it available to reserarchers who send in an envelope. But no finalword on that as of an hour ago. So that's all I know.)Till we meet again. . .best of luck to you.DavidDavid S. Lifton11500 W. Olympic Blvd., Suite 400Los AngelesCA 90064PS: Re my offer to send you a copy of my book. . . please make sure youprovide an address valid sometime later in 1999. Don't worry---it won't beY2K. It'll be 1999, or I go to the firing squad.
