Jeremy -- This is to let you know that this Wednesday, at 10:00am, I will be going to the ATF offices to help inspect about 30 boxes of materials they retrieved from their Regional Counsel office in Dallas. In connection with our compliance meeting, we had asked ATF to retrieve the regional counsel files to locate anything in connection with ATF's representation of Frank Ellsworth before the HSCA. Although it may be a lot of boxes, I think we will be looking for very specific materials and can finish in a couple of hours. I thought it might be good for one of the analysts to go with me, preferably one who knows something about Ellsworth. What do you think? --Ron
