FACSIMILE

Dear Ms. Cunningham -

Thank you for your very prompt response to my letter of October 26 with your fax of October 31. I was out of the office on business all day yesterday but found your follow-up fax of November 1 when I returned last evening.

Thank you for the address and telephone information for the HSCA consultants. So many researchers have been more than willing to share information and leads to locating records with me, and I thank you for doing the same. I can work so much more efficiently when people such as yourself and others are willing to share this type of information. Thank you again.

I'd like to take you up on your offer to provide the names of additional HSCA staffers and consultants. I'd like to send you a letter later next week with some additional names. Thank you in advance for your assistance with addresses and telephone numbers.

I look forward to speaking with you by telephone at some point. Once again, thank you for your interest and cooperation.
