Brad:

I must apologize for not writing this letter sooner, but the Board has been in town this week; we had an important conference on Tuesday as well, and things have been so busy that I have neglected the courtesy of following up with you.

I wanted to thank you again for taking the time to meet with me last Friday. I very much enjoyed our conversation, and I believe the subjects we discussed will be fruitful for the Board in its attempts to complete its mission of reviewing and releasing records relating to the assassination of President John Kennedy.

I also would like to let you know that I had no trouble picking up the envelope at the Holiday Inn. Due to the hectic pace of the last four days, I have not yet begun to review the material you enclosed, but I hope to do so this weekend. When I have done so, I will contact you if I have any questions or wish further elaboration on any point.

In the meantime, if anything else comes to mind for you, or if there is anything else you feel we should discuss, please feel free to contact me. You may do so through the Board (address is listed above), or if you wish, I believe you have my home number. Thanks again for your time, and for your willingness to work with the Board as we go about achieving our task.

Sincerely,

Christopher Barger
