Sheryl has produced the "Red-lined" draft of the Definition Guidance that follows. It incorporates all of the comments and concerns voiced at the Board Meeting as well as some additional items (see Paragraph 9). In addition, we have decided not to refer to the Catalog of Additional Records and Information (CARI) in the guidance because it is intended as a tool for internal Board use and is not intended to be made public in a routine fashion. Unlike the COAR, we do not intend to include the CARI in Federal Register notices. We will, of course, use it as a means of keeping track of our requests to agencies, and it will be a very useful document for future researchers. Please let us know if you have any final comments. We want to get this to the Federal Register by early next week.
