

Memo

There are four types of records at the JFK Library:

Federal Records

Records deeded to the Library and controlled by deed of gift

Records on Deposit at the Library controlled by deposit agreements

Records that are "pending" (the term used by the library staff) these are essentially records under courtesy storage, not governed by any formal instrument.