

PROPOSED CIA DOCUMENT REVIEW GUIDELINES

February 14, 1996

	RELEASABLE	PROTECTED	SUBSTITUTE* LANGUAGE
CRYPT	a) All LI crypts, except "sensitive"	a) Sensitive MC crypts	LICrypt
	b) All AM crypts
	c) All U.S. Government crypts
		d) "Sensitive" crypts	Crypt
		e) Digraphs of all remaining crypts	Digraph
SLUGLINE	All, except crypts and digraphs protected in text
FILE NUMBERS	a) All MC files, except "sensitive"	a) All but first segment before hyphen	CIA file number
	b) All "15" files
	c) All "19" files
		d) All remaining country identifiers (first segment before hyphen)	CIA file number
STATIONS	a) MC / 1960-1969

	RELEASABLE	PROTECTED	SUBSTITUTE* LANGUAGE
	b) Most remaining stations from time of assassination to publication of Warren Report, 11/22/63 - 09/64	Sensitive Stations	Geographic Substitutions
	c) Stations outside of "window", when demonstrably important to assassination story	c) Stations outside of "window" when not demonstrably important to assassination story	Geographic substitutions
PREFIXES (cable, dispatch, field report)	Where stations are releasable		Number redacted
SURVEILLANCE METHODS	All references, except where politically or operationally "sensitive"		Source or Method
NAMES	a) All pseudonyms
	b) In absence of sufficient evidence, U.S. Agency employees	b) Where clear and convincing evidence of harm is provided, all U.S. Agency employees	If available, pseudonym or alias, otherwise, CIA employee
		c) Foreign nationals (agents, assets, informers)	Source or method
JOB TITLES & DESCRIPTIONS	a) Station references - Where station is releasable	a) Where name and/or station are not releasable	Job title or description
	b) Non-station references - Where name is releasable
RELATIONS	General references	Specific examples, especially at	None

	RELEASABLE	PROTECTED	SUBSTITUTE* LANGUAGE
		high levels

*Unless context makes advisable additional information