Dear Mr. Nahra:

I am sorry to have to report that we have decided not to make you an offer. We have received literally hundreds of applications from a field of unusually well qualified individuals. Making the right personnel decisions has been a most difficult challenge given the high level of sophistication and experience of the applicants. In your case, it was particularly difficult since you pursued the position with such persistence and passion.

Thank you very much for your interest.

Sincerely,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director
