I have tracked down some information on the 112th Military Intelligence group at the US Army Military History Library. It gives know indication that the 112th had a detachment in New Orleans during Oswalds(Fair Play for Cuba) FPCC activities. There have been reports that a Major Eldrich had given the New Orleans FBI office a "Hand Bill" that he had received from Tulane University Campus.

I spoke with John Finnigan, from the Intelligence Security Command (INSCOM), he is a military historian who knows organizations very well and was a member of the 166th MI Group located here in the District. He described the duties of these types of units and
