Subject: Draft Defense Organization Paper

Enclosed is a draft organization issue paper that addresses the breakdown of the intelligence apparatus of the Department of Defense as it was in the 1960's. It describes the functional responsibilities of each branch and mission.

The following information is also included:

Defense Organization Charts of 1960-1961

Information on Oswald's ONI File (furnished for the HSCA from DoD)

Transmittal Sheets for the Naval Investigative Service (1938-1960)

Files from the Secretary of Defense, Office of Special Operations

(1952-1961)

Documents released by the National Security Agency to the HSCA

Books on Intelligence (from The Man Who Knew to Much)

Information for the research was taken from a number of different sources. A bibliography will be supplied.
